Outcome Area

Civic Engagement

To increase civic engagement in communities of color and other low-income communities.

Strategy Area

Policy/Community Organizing

Public policies can promote or inhibit the civic engagement of teens and adults from low-income communities of color. The Foundation will support advocacy and organizing that have the potential to change public policy and increase resources to maintain civil rights and promote greater civic engagement. Some examples of possible public policy goals include but are not limited to: same day registration and voting; lowering the voting age to 16 for local elections to expand the civic engagement of teens; allowing immigrants to vote in municipal elections and referendums; increasing funding for citizenship education; and incorporating civic engagement curricula in public education.
